

Week 17 Fantasy Pool Update:

Patty B has won the 1992 NFHL Fantasy Pool! After taking the lead mid-way through the season, his team never looked back and won the title by 16 points. Congratulations Patty Boy!! In second was Simon H. It looked like he was going to be the runaway winner after the first 5 weeks, but it was not to be. His downfall? Taking too many Flyers. Just like the regular season, they faded down the stretch but were lucky to hold onto second. At least you and the Blues will have the pool. In the third and final spot was Brandon J. Led by Glenn Anderson and Igor Larionov, Brando was the only team with two 100 point scorers. Ultimately, the Kings late season slide had Ron Hextall coming up with a few lackluster weeks sealed his fate.

We won't go into the lowlights. You guys know who you are!! Thanks to everyone who participated and a suggestion for next year. Make it a keeper league. Keep two, throw the rest back into the pool.
